

Ana María Hernández,

Curriculum Vitae

EDUCATION

In Progress Ph.D. in Sociology
 Concentration: Latina/Latino Studies

August 2019 Master's in Social Work

May 2018 B.S. Social Work
 B.A. Political Science
 Minor in Latin American/Latino Studies

HONORS, AWARDS, AND FELLOWSHIPS

August 2019 Graduate College Fellow

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Race/Ethnicity, Legality, Immigration, Afro-Latin America, Race in Latin America, and the African diaspora in Colombia.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Summer 2020 Research Assistant on the Spencer Foundation Research Grant

Summer 2017 Ronald E. McNair Summer Program Research
 Factors Impacting Retention Rates of First-Generation Latino Students in Higher Education

UPCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Mina Hernández, Ana María. (TBA). "The Afro-Colombian Experience on the Pacific Coast of Colombia: Intersections of Structural Processes." Chapter in The Latinx Experience: Interdisciplinary Perspectives.

PRESENTATIONS AND PANELS

Hernández, A.M. "First-Generation Latinx Students in Higher Education" PowerPoint Presentation for Latino Heritage Month (September 2019)

Hernández, A.M. Participated in "50 Shades of Brown Colorism Panel" (April 2016)

Hernández, A.M. "Suárez Gold: Afro-Colombian Miners Defending Their Heritage Documentary Screening and Discussion" (February 2017)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2018 – 2019 Graduate Hourly at University Department

2018 – 2019 Graduate Tutor Coordinator

2016 – 2018 Student Worker at the College of Liberal Arts Advising

2017 Student Worker at the Student Multicultural Resource Center

UNIVERSITY SERVICE

September 2018 Co-founding member of LUCHA (Latinos Unidos con Honor y Amistad) at the University to build community among Latinx graduate students.

LANGUAGES

Fluent in Spanish and English