

1ST ANNUAL

GRADUATE SOCIOLOGY CONFERENCE 2015

FRIDAY, APRIL 24TH

LINCOLN HALL 1092

5:00 pm

Keynote by Professor Asef Bayat

SATURDAY, APRIL 25TH

LINCOLN HALL 1092

9:00 am

Breakfast (Lincoln Hall 3057)

9:30-11:00 am

Race, Class, and Gender

Acceptance of Intimate Partner Violence by Women in Tanzania (Morrow)

Who's Dangerous? Who's Mad? The Racialized and Gendered Predictors of Solitary Confinement (Lee, Rochin, and Schlesinger)

Labor, Gender, and Failed Construction of an Indigenous Servant Class in Mid-Twentieth Century Canada (Riopelle)

We Are Neither "Prisoners" nor "Offenders." We Are Teachers and Students: Incarcerated Men and Peer ESL

Instruction in an Illinois State Prison (Kurusu)

11:00-12:30 pm

Work and Workplace

Lawyers in Korea (Park)

Pornstar Memoirs: Gender and the Workplace (Fieseler)

A Quantitative Analysis of Job Satisfaction Among Faculty in STEM: Does Gender Matter? (Sattari)

From "the Mastery of the Country" to "the Master of Your Own": The Changing Discourse of the Modern Child in

Contemporary China (Zhang)

12:30-1:30 pm

Lunch (Lincoln Hall 3057)

1:30-2:30 pm

Roundtable

Missing from the Discussion: Students with Disabilities and Diversity in Higher Education (Buckley-Shaklee)

Lessons in Epistemology and Methods from Research with the Ojibwe of Northern Minnesota (Cragoe)

Investigating the Effects of Street Harassment on Women through Mobile Device Reporting (Feely)

Food Justice in San Diego (Gresh)

2:30-4:00 pm

Transnationalism and Postcolonialism

We Are Not "Illegal," We Are "Undocumented and Unafraid" (Perez)

Contradictions in Care: Transgressing Neoliberal (Ill)logics in Transnational Biomedicine (Rieder)

Enacting the U.S. Commercial Spaceport: A Study in the Making of an Aerospace Market (Pacheco-McEvoy)

Transnational Migration and Upward Mobility: Migrant Women's Aspirations and Long-Term Plans (Bonatti and Muniandy)

4:00-4:30 pm

Tea Break

4:30 pm

Closing remarks by Professor Brian Dill